Hegseth meets Netanyahu at a southern Israel air base; Iran was on the table

U.S. Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth made an unannounced stop in Israel on Monday, Oct. 19, and met Prime Minister Netanyahu at Ovda Air Base, where U.S. tankers and fighter jets are based. Netanyahu's spokesman says they discussed regional threats. Israel votes Oct. 27.

CONFIRMED The meeting and its place are confirmed on the record by Netanyahu's spokesman Doron Spielman (to Reuters, via Times of Israel). Reports that the talks focused on resuming large-scale strikes on Iran come from unnamed sources (Axios, CNN via The National) and are not confirmed; the Pentagon has not commented on Hegseth's movements.

Axios first reported the visit late Monday, Oct. 19. On Tuesday, Netanyahu spokesman Doron Spielman confirmed to Reuters that the two met at Ovda (also spelled Uvda) Air Force Base in the Negev, and that they discussed "the threats in the region" and how the U.S. and Israel handle them, both defensively and offensively.

Spielman said Hegseth thanked Israel for hosting U.S. forces, which he put in the thousands, and that the two talked about President Trump's support for Netanyahu. Trump endorsed Netanyahu for re-election the same weekend.

Reuters, citing three Israeli officials, says Iran was a main topic. Axios earlier reported that the Pentagon told U.S. Central Command to finish preparations for possible renewed large-scale operations against Iran, with no decision made and no date set. That part rests on unnamed sources.

Alma: senior IRGC recruiter Hossein Yekta visited Lebanon to rally Hezbollah's base

The Alma Center says Hossein Yekta, an IRGC commander tied to recruitment and indoctrination, came to Lebanon in early October with a delegation for families of dead Hezbollah fighters, reportedly met senior Hezbollah figures, and filmed himself washing in the Litani River as a "prelude to prayer in Jerusalem." Alma says this tests Beirut's March pledge to stop IRGC activity on its soil.

REPORTED / UNVERIFIED Alma's research report, built on media reports and a video; the meetings are "reported," and no Lebanese or Iranian official statement was checked.

Alma: Hezbollah's health minister is backing the reopening of a Hezbollah-run clinic

Alma says Lebanon's Health Minister Rakan Nassereddine, Hezbollah's man in the cabinet, is sponsoring the reopening of a medical center run by Hezbollah's Islamic Health Organization. Alma's view is that this rebuilds Hezbollah's civilian network, and its hold on people, with the government's stamp on it.

REPORTED / UNVERIFIED The reopening is Alma's report; the reading of it as a "state within a state" is Alma's analysis. No Lebanese ministry statement was checked.

FROM THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE · @ISRAELIPM

Official account of the Prime Minister of Israel. Statements are the government's own.

Tel Hai College becomes Kiryat Shmona–Tel Hai University

Netanyahu went to Kiryat Shmona with ministers Yoav Kisch and Ze'ev Elkin to open the academic year and mark the college's upgrade to a university, backed by NIS 694 million. The office ties it to a roughly NIS 6.8 billion northern program that includes 1,800 mobile bomb shelters and 500 renovated public shelters.

CONFIRMED The visit and figures come from the Prime Minister's Office post with photos; the figures are the government's own and were not independently checked.

REGION · U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT

U.S. tells Americans across the Middle East to stay on heightened alert as Houthi–Saudi fighting continues

Overnight the State Department and the U.S. Embassy in Riyadh issued a security alert telling Americans in the Middle East to exercise heightened vigilance and plan for possible flight cancellations, airspace closures and travel disruptions. It cites Houthi attacks on Saudi Arabia, warns that Iran and groups it backs may target U.S. interests worldwide, and says the fighting could escalate quickly. On Monday, Haaretz reported that a Houthi attack on a government military camp in southern Yemen killed 53 people, citing local authorities, and that Houthi attacks on Saudi airports and oil facilities have killed 19.

CONFIRMED The alert is posted directly by @TravelGov and @USAinKSA and is travel guidance. The Yemen death tolls are figures from local authorities reported by Haaretz, which we could not independently verify.

DIPLOMACY

Israel and Lebanon finish a first day of talks at CENTCOM in Tampa; second day Wednesday

Israeli and Lebanese military delegations met for about six hours on Tuesday at U.S. Central Command headquarters in Tampa, under U.S. mediation, to work on the June framework deal, Hezbollah disarmament and Israeli pullback from two "pilot areas" in south Lebanon. No result was announced. Lebanon wants Israeli strikes to stop; Netanyahu says the Lebanese army must clear Hezbollah from the pilot zones or Israel will.

REPORTED / UNVERIFIED That the meeting took place is confirmed to The Jerusalem Post by two IDF sources and to Anadolu by diplomatic sources; no joint statement or U.S. State Department readout had been issued.

WEST BANK · PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE, @ISRAELIPM

Police arrest 10 Israeli suspects over weekend settler attacks, including the assault on European diplomats

Israel Police said early Monday that 10 Israeli suspects were detained at dawn at several places in the central West Bank, in a joint operation with the Shin Bet, on suspicion of taking part in the weekend settler attacks on Palestinians and foreign diplomats. Police said evidence linking them to the attacks was found and several vehicles were seized; the first count was eight. Masked men attacked Belgian, French and Polish diplomats and a French mayor in Taybeh on Saturday, and the EU, France and Secretary of State Rubio pressed Israel to act. No charges have been announced.

CONFIRMED The arrests come from Israel Police statements carried by The Times of Israel; the number rose from 8 to 10 during the morning. Who was arrested and for which attack has not been made public, and no one has been charged. That the delegation was attacked is documented by video, the Belgian and Polish governments, the IDF and several news organizations. The EU, French and Rubio statements are on the record. The PMO had urged caution before assigning blame.
