WEST BANK • PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE, @ISRAELIPM

European diplomats attacked in West Bank village; Netanyahu's office urges caution before blame

Belgian, French and Polish envoys and a French mayor were set upon by masked men in Taybeh during the olive harvest. The IDF and Foreign Minister Sa’ar condemned it; the Prime Minister’s Office says the images do not yet show who did what. No arrests as of Sunday morning.

CONFIRMED That the delegation was attacked is documented by video, the Belgian and Polish governments, the IDF and several independent news organizations, and police have opened an investigation. Who the attackers were and the full sequence of events are not established; the PMO disputes early conclusions. The police claim that the missions refused to cooperate comes from police officials via Ynet; the governments involved had not publicly answered it as of this edition.

A delegation of European diplomats from Belgium, France and Poland, along with Catholic Church representatives, was attacked on Saturday, Oct. 17, in Taybeh, a largely Christian Palestinian village near Ramallah, according to the BBC and the Associated Press. The group had come to see the olive harvest, which has seen near-daily settler violence this month.

Video showed masked men confronting the convoy, and Belgian authorities said a consulate car had a window smashed. French mayor Bernard Baudoux of Aulnoye-Aymeries said he was hit with metal bars and kicked to the ground, and said afterward that he was fine. Belgian Foreign Minister Maxime Prévot condemned the attack, said “impunity for violent settlers must end,” and said Belgium will press for more EU sanctions.

The IDF said it “strongly condemns the severe act of violence” by “Israeli rioters,” and that police and forensic investigators were entering the area. Foreign Minister Gideon Sa’ar also condemned it, but said the visit had not been coordinated with the IDF in advance. Israel Police said they opened an investigation once they received the footage.

In a long statement, the Prime Minister’s Office called any violence against diplomats unacceptable but urged caution before drawing conclusions. It said the footage “does not establish the complete sequence of events or individual responsibility,” noted the visit was uncoordinated, and said the reports come amid what it called a coordinated campaign to smear Israel and Jewish residents of Judea and Samaria during the harvest.

By Sunday morning no suspects had been arrested. Police officials told Ynet the diplomats’ missions had not provided testimony, footage or access to the vehicles. Channel 12 (N12) reported that the IDF and police are trading blame, and that a new Border Police company will work on preventing nationalist crime in the West Bank.

Alma: Hezbollah owned up to the seized explosives truck and wants it back

Alma says Hezbollah MP Hassan Fadlallah confirmed on Oct. 15 that the explosives-laden vehicle seized Oct. 5 at the Dahr al-Baidar checkpoint was Hezbollah's, said the cargo was meant for Israeli forces in south Lebanon, and demanded it back along with the two men held. Alma notes an Al-Akhbar report that prosecutors ordered the arrest of Hezbollah liaison chief Hussein Abdullah and aide Ali Ayoub; Hezbollah and judicial sources quoted by MTV deny it, and Alma says it cannot verify it.

REPORTED / UNVERIFIED Alma's account and analysis. Hezbollah's ownership claim is from its own MP. The arrest-order report is unverified and has been denied by judicial sources and Hezbollah.

Alma: Litani crossings struck in March are largely passable again

In a new report, Alma says eight Litani River bridges hit in March 2026 have been patched or bypassed with temporary crossings, so routes south of the river appear open to Hezbollah again.

It says Lebanese Army monitoring has not been confirmed at every active crossing, and it points to the Oct. 5 seizure of a Hezbollah explosives vehicle at the Dahr al-Baydar checkpoint as a test of enforcement.

REPORTED / UNVERIFIED Alma's assessment based on open-source and satellite information; not independently verified.

SECURITY

GAZA

IDF says four more Hamas operatives killed, one an Oct. 7 infiltrator

On Saturday the IDF said strikes from Thursday to Saturday killed four Hamas members: a Nukhba Force member, a sniper, a man it says invaded Israel on Oct. 7, 2023, and an operative hit in southern Gaza on Saturday. It said they were planning attacks “in systematic violation of the ceasefire.” This follows Friday's announcement that two other Hamas commanders were killed. Palestinian media described one of the four as a journalist.

REPORTED / UNVERIFIED IDF statements; the identities, roles and the Palestinian description of one man as a journalist have not been independently verified.

EASTERN BORDER

Netanyahu tours new eastern border barrier, warns Israel's enemies: “Do not test us”

On Oct. 15 Netanyahu toured the barrier being built along Israel's eastern border near Kibbutz Massada with Defense Minister Israel Katz. In a PMO video he said it will run “from the Yarmouk to Eilat,” on top of the security zones Israel holds in Lebanon, Syria and Gaza, and warned Israel's enemies: “Do not test us.” No cost, length or timeline was given.

CONFIRMED The visit, remarks and video come from the PMO's own post. The plans and capabilities described are the government's statements; no cost, length or timeline was given.

IRGC claims a supertanker hit a mine on an “unauthorized” route Iran's Revolutionary Guard navy said a tanker carrying more than 2 million barrels struck a naval mine and caught fire. It did not name the ship. CENTCOM rejected an earlier IRGC mine claim this week, saying a container ship was hit by an IRGC projectile and that the main shipping routes are clear of mines.

REPORTED / UNVERIFIED IRGC claim via Iranian state media; the vessel, flag and damage are not independently confirmed.

LEBANON

Aoun: Lebanese army delegation will press for end to Israeli strikes at Tampa talks on Oct. 20

Meeting French Foreign Minister Jean-Noël Barrot in Beirut, President Joseph Aoun said a Lebanese military delegation will attend the U.S.-backed three-way meeting with Israel in Tampa on Oct. 20 to demand a halt to Israeli escalation. He said Israel has not kept to the June framework agreement, and asked that UN peacekeepers stay in the south through 2027 or that some other international presence replace them.

CONFIRMED The meeting date and Lebanon's positions come from the Lebanese presidency's own post and Reuters. The charge that Israel broke the framework is Lebanon's claim; Israel had not responded publicly as of this edition.

LEBANON

Rubio tells Aoun: don't hand seized explosives back to Hezbollah

Secretary of State Marco Rubio urged Lebanese President Joseph Aoun to hold accountable those behind a shipment of hundreds of kilograms of explosives seized from Hezbollah, a State Department official told Reuters. Aoun's office said he asked Washington to press Israel to stop strikes in the south.

CONFIRMED Call confirmed by a U.S. official and the Lebanese presidency, per Reuters.
